Inclusive Change Leadership

Faculty Success Leadership Series

February 10, 2021 | 3:30 - 5:00 p.m.
This is a virtual event. Register online for access.

Change has truly been the only constant at KSU for many years. As we lead the change and through the change, it is crucial that we practice Inclusive Change Leadership, affirming a variety of perspectives in a space of positivity and unity. This webinar provides an opportunity to learn more about Inclusive Change Leadership, the how, the what, and the why.

Inclusive Change Leadership is not about silver bullets. Rather, it is a long-term process where we commit to change our mindset and our actions, and be accountable. Nevertheless, there are certain tools that will aide in our ability to actively engage in Inclusive Change Leadership. In this workshop, we will briefly introduce related leadership theories (Adaptive Leadership, Multicultural Organizational Development model). We will then engage in constructive and active conversation about Inclusive Change Leadership. You will leave with a broadened understanding of Inclusive Change Leadership, why it is important and how to enact its tenets in your leadership practice.

Facilitator:
- Michele DiPietro,
  Executive Director for Faculty Development, Recognition and the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning

Dr. Michele DiPietro is the Executive Director for Faculty Development, Recognition, and the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning and a Professor in the School of Data Science and Analytics at KSU. With their former Carnegie Mellon colleagues, Dr. DiPietro is a co-author of “How Learning Works: 7 Research-Based Principles for Smart Teaching.” They have presented hundreds of workshops and keynotes at numerous colleges and conferences, in the US as well as abroad. Their scholarship has been translated into multiple languages (Chinese, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Spanish, and Arabic).

Facilitator:
- Heather Scott,
  Coordinator of the Leadership Studies Minor and Associate Professor of Interdisciplinary Studies

Heather Scott, Ph.D. is an Associate Professor of Interdisciplinary Studies and serves as coordinator of the Leadership Studies minor in the Norman J. Radow College of Humanities and Social Sciences. Heather holds a Doctor of Philosophy Degree from Mercer University, a Master of Education Degree from The University of Georgia and a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Agnes Scott College. Dr. Scott's research focuses on Women and Leadership, with lines of inquiry in board governance at private colleges and universities, Black women in the professoriate, and leadership identity development of girls and women.

Register at facultydevelopment.kennesaw.edu/cetl_events.php facultysuccess@kennesaw.edu